ABOUT ME

I am a multi-skilled creative passionate about creating unforgettable experiences and stunning visuals with a strong interest in documentary filmmaking, the media and art industry, and event management. My academic background in Media Studies and Visual Anthropology brought me academic and hard skills aligning with these interests. Having lived across three continents, I can adapt easily to new environments, cultures, and workflows. I am curious and a fast learner, a detail-oriented person with a strong sense of customer service and the ability to work in teams.
